

NEWSPAPERIAL

The Eureka Sentinel has been enlarged to the size of the JOURNAL. The explanation is given in the subjoined:

We wish to say to the patrons of the Sentinel to whom the paper comes this morning reduced in size that they will nevertheless continue to be served with the same quantity of reading matter as formerly. When the times warrant it the paper will be again enlarged, as has already been the case several times in the course of the last 13 years since the Sentinel first became a part of the camp. Although we are confident of better times in the future, still until those times arrive we are bound to adapt ourselves to the inevitable present. It is a fact meanwhile useless to attempt to disguise that business in the field occupied by the Sentinel has shrunk so much that it would be suicidal for us to keep the paper up to its former high-pressure standard. It is simply this: The times are changed and we are changed in them. For the last six years the Sentinel has been as large as any other daily newspaper published in any town in the United States of the size of Eureka. It will be our pride and gratification to re-enlarge as soon as it becomes again consistent with our business interests to do so.

The Sentinel still maintains its price of $15 per year, and 50 cents per week, delivered by carrier. There is not a paper in the State but could be reduced in size, without any great inconvenience to the general public, and with considerable benefit to the publishers. Every paper in the State is publishing "dead" advertisements, and it is safe to say that the newspapers have suffered more than any other business during the dull season which has hovered over the State.

Kalakaua's Weakness

The Chicago Tribune's Washington special says: A gentleman who has spent the Summer in Hawaii gives a different report from that which has been generally received as to the strength of King Kalakaua among his people. This gentleman says: "The King is very weak. He has not the respect of the Sandwich Islanders. He has not the faintest glimmer of statesmanship. His total army is sixty men. His navy consists of a tug boat, on which one swivel gun is mounted. The actual strength of the monarchy lies in the fact that the planters who are mostly white people, understand that their interest lies in a stable government. Another element of strength is the fact that European Powers, whose citizens have large mercantile interests there, do not desire that the islands shall fall under the control of the United States or any other power, but will exert themselves to maintain some monarchical establishment as a form of government, however feeble."

A Reno man hired out at Truckee, a few days ago, to drive an ox team and was discharged the first day, for the reason that having a full set of false teeth he was unable to use language sufficiently rehemont to manage the team.

CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR.—The Austin Revere says Colonel A. C. Ellis, of Carson, is an out and out candidate for the United States Senate, to succeed John P. Jones. The Revere concedes that Colonel Ellis has the ability to make an excellent Senator, but intimates that because he was defeated for Congress, he could not be elected to the Senate. If this information amounts to anything, which it does not, Minister Daggett, who is the Revere's favorite for the Senatorship, will be ruled out of the fight. When Col. Ellis was defeated for Congress, the Bank of California, or rather its corn, controlled the politics of Nevada to a great extent, and there was very little show for a man like Col. Ellis, who was making a fight on ability and principle, to succeed. Silver State

Dr. Bland, biographer of Governor Butler, in a long communication in the Boston Morning Herald, expresses deep regret that since the publication of his book, he has been forced to revise his estimate of its subject, and deems it his duty to apologize to the public for having become his biographer. He has experienced a radical change of opinion with regard to his character, owing chiefly to his alleged desertion of and insults to Greenbackers and his endeavors to kill the Greenback party in Massachusetts.

Free trade is a Democratic measure, and the Democrats in Congress made a savage and bitter fight for the reduction of the tariff on wool, and it was Mr. Beck, a leading Democratic Senator from Kentucky, who said that he wished wool could be admitted free altogether.

REFORM AT EUREKA.

From the Eureka Leader we learn that at the last meeting of the Board of Commissioners of that county the Board dispensed entirely with the Deputy County Treasurer, and further agreed that the Clerk and Auditor should only be allowed deputies for fifteen and ten days respectively for each of the ensuing three months. The Board also ordered that all bills presented to the Board hereafter for allowance shall be fully itemized, with the date when supplies were furnished, the quantity, for whom and by whose order; and that all bills for work and services rendered the county shall be fully itemized, and in like manner as to where and when the work was performed, the number of days or portions of a day, and by whose order such work was performed or services rendered. The Board also ordered that no member of the Board should order any supplies for the county, or work done for the same, over the sum of ten dollars, and then only in writing and in case of exigency; but that all orders above that amount for work or supplies should be made either by the Board when regularly convened, or by at least two members of the Board conjointly when the Board is not in session, and no person or persons should make any order for supplies or work except members of the Board and as above provided. The Board also passed an order that whenever the same is practicable all supplies for the county and all work done for the same to the amount of fifty dollars or over shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, this Board reserving to itself the right to reject any and all bids at its discretion; and that for any such bids the Board shall order the County Clerk to post notices for proposals for at least five days prior to the opening of such proposals and the awarding of any bids which may be awarded. Said notices to be posted in the usual legal manner, that is to say, in three of the most public places in the county. Let the good work go on.

Borax

The largest supply of borax in the world is in this county, says the Hawthorne Bulletin, partly on the line of the C & C railroad and partly in Fish Lake Valley and Columbus Basin. From some of the marshes the cotton balls are shipped to Europe to be worked. At most, however, the borax is manufactured on the ground. There are three large works near Columbus, which when in operation, can turn out about six tons daily. In addition to these there are five smaller establishments, that altogether can make about two tons daily. The large mills are closed at present as they have a great quantity on hand, but small places are steadily at work. From Rhodes' marsh the raw material is nearly all shipped to Liverpool and Gray & Turner, near Columbus, are making preparations to ship to the same place. They sent samples off last Saturday.

Upon, the counterfeiter, has a Nevada Record

Upon, the counterfeiter arrested in San Francisco, is said to have a criminal record in Nevada. The detectives believe him to be the same person as was employed by H. H. McCauley at Willow Creek Station, near Winnemucca. One night last January, McCauley, while on drunk, left his safe keys with Upon. The next morning the safe was found to be securely fastened, and had to be broken open, when the cash was found to be short $5,000 in gold, and Upon was missing. He was afterwards arrested in Winnemucca, but after two weeks' imprisonment, was discharged on account of insufficient evidence against him.

Rocks Covered.

Regardless of party it is but fair to say that if Mr. Dennis should be a candidate for Congress his opponent would have a very soft head if he thought he had a soft job on his hands.—Walker Lake Bulletin

Thank you, Brother Campbell, both for the compliment and for the opportunity afforded the writer of disclaiming any designs upon Nevada's Congressional seat. He has an office now which he would have been better off by several thousand dollars without, and he hasn't the remotest intention of ever again becoming a candidate for any official position whatever.—Tuscarora Times-Review.

The reputed "phenomenon" wherein the snow has disappeared from Mount Rose is not to be attributed to volcanic heat. In 1869, in our memory is correct as to the year the snow all disappeared. The long hot summer has caused the snow to melt away—and nothing else.—Carson Index.

The proposition to move the Carson Land Office to Eureka and compel two thirds of the population to go there to transact their business is one of the most absurd things that has reached us from Washington in a long time.—Carson Appeal.

THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY

Upon a Subject of Vital Interest, Affecting the Welfare of All.

The following remarkable letter from one of the leading and best known scientific writers of the present day is especially significant, and should be of unusual value to all readers who desire to keep pace with the march of modern discoveries and events:

"A general demand for reformation is one of the most distinctive characteristics of the nineteenth century. The common people, as well as the more enlightened and refined, cry out with no uncertain voice to be emancipated from the slavery of conservatism and superstition which has held the masses in gross ignorance during a large portion of the world's history, and in the time of the 'Dark Ages' came near obliterating the last glimmer of truth. Dogmatic assertions and blind empiricism are losing caste among all classes of all countries. People are beginning to think for themselves, and to regard authority much less than argument. Men and women are no longer willing that a few individuals should dictate to them what must be their sentiments and opinions. They claim the right to solve for themselves the great questions of the day and demand that the general good of humanity shall be respected. As the result of this general awakening, we see, on every hand, unmistakable evidences of reformatory action. People who, a few years ago, endured suffering the most intense in the name of duty, now realize the utter foolishness of such a course. Men who were under the bondage of bigoted advisers allowed their health to depart; suffering their constitutions to become undermined and finally died as martyrs to a false system of treatment. There are millions of people filling antiseptic graves who might have lived to a green old age had their troubles been taken in time or properly treated. There are thousands of people to day, thoughtlessly enduring the first systems of some serious malady and without the slightest realization of the danger that is before them. They have occasional headaches; a lack of appetite one day and a ravenous one the next, or an unaccountable feeling of weariness, sometimes accompanied by nausea and attribute all these troubles to the old idea of a slight cold or influenza. It is high time that people awake to a knowledge of the seriousness of these matters and emancipate themselves from the professional bigotry which controls them. When this is done and when all classes of physicians become liberal enough to exorcise all dogmas, save that it is their duty to cure disease as quickly and as safely as possible, to maintain no other position than that of truth honestly ascertained, and to endorse and recommend any remedy that has been found useful, no matter what its origin, there will be no more quarreling among the doctors, while there will be great rejoicing throughout the world."

"I am well aware of the censure that will be meted out to me for writing this letter but I feel that I cannot be true to my honest convictions unless I extend a helping hand and endorse all that I know to be good. The extended publications of the past few years, and graphic descriptions of different diseases of the kidneys and liver have awakened the medical profession to the fact that these diseases are greatly increasing. The treatment of the doctors has been largely experimental and many of the patients have died while they were casting about for a remedy to cure them."

"It is now over two years since my attention was first called to the use of a most wonderful preparation in the treatment of Bright's disease of the kidneys. Patients had frequently asked me about the remedy and I had heard of remarkable cures effected by it, but like many others I hesitated to recommend its use. A personal friend of mine had been in poor health for some time and his application for insurance on his life had been rejected on account of Bright's disease. Chemical and microscopical examinations of his urine revealed the presence of large quantities of albumen and granular tube casts, which confirmed the correctness of the diagnosis. After trying all the usual remedies, I directed him to use this preparation and was greatly surprised to observe a decided improvement within a month, and within four months, no tube casts could be discovered. At that time there was present only a trace of albumen, and he felt as he expressed it 'perfectly well,' and all through the influence of Warner's Safe Cure, the remedy he used."

"After this I prescribed this medicine in full doses in both acute and chronic nephritis, [Bright's disease] and with the most satisfactory results. My observations were neither small in number or hastily made. They extended over several months and embraced a large number of cases which have proved so satisfactory to my mind, that I would earnestly urge upon my professional brethren the importance of giving a fair and patient trial to Warner's Safe Cure. In a large class of ailments where the blood is obviously in an unhealthy state, especially where glandular engorgements and inflammatory eruptions exist, indeed in many of those forms of chronic indisposition in which there is no evidence of organic mischief, but where the general health is depleted, the face sallow, the urine colored, constituting the condition in which the patient is said to be 'bilious,' the advantage gained by the use of this remedy is remarkable. In Bright's disease it seems to act as a solvent of albumen; to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes; to wash out the epithelial debris which blocks up the tubuli uriniferi, and to prevent a destructive metamorphosis of tissue."

"Belonging as I do to a branch of the profession that believes that no one school of medicine knows all the truth regarding the treatment of disease, and being independent enough to select any remedy that will relieve my patients, without reference to the source from whence it comes, I am glad to acknowledge and commend the merits of this remedy thus frankly."

Respectfully yours,
R. A. GUNN, M. D.

THE PRESIDENT'S COURIER.

(Cor. Albany Journal.)

One of the remarkable features of the President's recent tour of the Yellowstone Park and Wyoming Territory was the regularity with which he received dispatches and news from the outside world. Although hundreds of miles in the wilderness for weeks, he was in daily receipt of current information. This was made possible by a line of couriers established by Colonel Clark, and running from Fort Ellis, a telegraph station near the Northern Pacific, and the Presidential camp, wherever located. A courier would take his bag, mount his horse and ride twenty-five miles on a dead gallop. At the end of that distance a camp was located. Within a quarter of a mile from the camp the horseman would yell like an Indian. It was the signal for the second courier to mount his fresh saddle-horse. As the first rider reached the camp he threw the mail bag to the second man, who was off in a flash, not an instant being occupied in the change. And then, at regular distances of twenty-five miles, the performance was repeated. I happened at a courier's camp while the dispatch was expected. On the trail stood a fine bay horse, saddled and bridled, and eager, apparently, for his long run. Suddenly upon the air sounded a piercing shriek, which echoed down the mountain gorges like a piteous wail. In an instant the courier was in his saddle, and a moment later a worried, foaming horse came madly around a bend in the road. Then the dispatch bag was thrown out, and the soldier dashed away on his twenty-five-mile journey. Col. Clark told me that there had not been a failure in the prompt delivery of the President's mail, and that Mr. Arthur had complimented him upon the excellence of the service. I do not see how he could have done otherwise. It was really a remarkable piece of work to be kept up continuously for thirty days.

THE CARSON LAND OFFICE.—The removal of the U. S. Land Office will very naturally precipitate a comparison of influence with the President as between George Cassidy of Eureka and Senator John P. Jones and James G. Fair of Western Nevada. The proper business would be to consolidate the Eureka office with the one now existing at Carson. The land interests of this State clearly indicate that to make the headquarters of Uncle Sam's office at Eureka is an intentional snub to Nevada.—Carson Index.

Prof. Germain See has called the attention of the Paris Academy of Medicine to a new medicinal alkaloid said to resemble digitalis in its action but having none of the objectionable properties of that drug. The new substance is called convallarin, and is obtained from the lily of the valley. It acts powerfully on the heart, and lowers the pulse very decidedly. The plant itself is said to have been long employed by Russian peasants for dropsical affections.

The Reno Journal thus trots Carson on its knee: "Reno is delighted to have the company of so many Carsonites as are here at present." The "second coming" is now near at hand. It will soon be here unless all the witnesses and others concerned in the Combs case shall go down to Reno from Carson provided with blankets and lunch baskets.—Enterprise.

Hammond at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and Sunday evening Bishop Warren will preach. Sunday evening, after the services, the appointments for the coming year will be announced.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire broke out in some sheds in the rear of Jackman's house, on Fourth street, in Western Addition. The alarm was sounded and the fire engines were promptly on the ground, but their services were not needed, as the sheds were some distance from the house and were consumed in a few moments, and fortunately the fire was not communicated to any other buildings. It is thought the fire originated through the careless use of matches by children. The loss in dollars and cents is trifling, but ought to serve as a wholesome warning. This is the worst time in the year for fires.

A Serious Runaway.

Thomas Mayberry was thrown from a wagon yesterday afternoon at Mayberry's ranch, and seriously if not fatally injured. The team was a span of colts belonging to Billy Coughlin, which from some cause became unmanageable and ran away, tearing everything to pieces and seriously and it is feared fatally injuring Mr. Mayberry, the driver. A messenger came for Dr. Hogan in great haste and could not give particulars of the unfortunate affair, and just how bad Mr. Mayberry is hurt could not be ascertained at the hour of going to press.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription."

always becomes the favorite remedy of those who try it. It is a specific for all female "weaknesses" and derangements, bringing strength to the limbs and back, and color to the face. Of all druggists.

Cholera Breeders.

The vaults and cess-pools bordering on the alley south of Commercial Row from Center street to Sierra street, with few exceptions, are absolutely abominable, and the stench arising therefrom is sickening in the extreme, and the wonder is the nuisance has been tolerated so long. If there is no law to compel property holders to remedy this evil there should be an ordinance passed at once, for such are not only disgraceful but endanger the health and life of every citizen.

Hardly Fair.

There is talk of prosecuting the two men who escaped from the Wadsworth cooler the night of the fire, on a charge of jail breaking. This would be hardly fair. If the prisoners thought there was any danger of the jail taking fire they were justified in forcing their way out, and after once free they would have been considered fit subjects for a lunatic asylum if they had not walked off.

Lost Man.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of George Grimes, who was in Reno Sep. 22d, will confer a favor by informing this office or R. P. M. Kelly, Reno.

Dr. Bergstein, late assistant surgeon at the Nevada Insane Asylum, has decided to locate in Reno, and has taken the rooms recently vacated by Hon. C. S. Varian, in the Sunderland block, on Virginia St. Dr. Bergstein is regarded as one of the best physicians in the State and will doubtless find Reno a good field. His card will be found in another column.

The two men who were arrested by officer Nash on suspicion of being the parties who escaped from the Wadsworth jail at the time of the fire proved to be the right parties. They were identified by Constable Shields who will take them to Wadsworth this morning.

Oscar Tharp was arrested yesterday. He was accused of having surreptitiously taking a $20 piece from a table where some parties were throwing dice. He paid the money said to have been lost, and the costs in the case and was discharged.

Captain F. C. Lord, Collector of the Nevada Internal Revenue District, will be tendered by Hon. A. L. Frost, Collector of the consolidated District of Nevada and the Fourth of California, the appointment of Deputy in the new district.

All the Hebrew stores will close at 6 o'clock on Monday evening next and remain closed until the same hour on Wednesday evening following, the occasion for this being the celebration of the Jewish New Year, or Roshashana.

Notwithstanding the fact that E. Meyer had his store robbed of a few dollars in money and other valuables, his stock of tobacco and cigars remain the same, and are acknowledged the very best.

Warren Bell has unearthed another curiosity at the State prison. It is a horses head minus a small portion of the under jaw, all in a most perfect state of preservation.

Wesley Suddler's broken leg still keeps him confined to his room at the Lake House, though he is feeling well and hopes in a few days to be able to get out.

President Arthur and several members of his Cabinet will attend the forthcoming cotton exposition at New Orleans.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, unreswind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-sw1-jy1

Ayer's Hair Vigor promotes the growth and improves the beauty of the hair. It imparts an attractive appearance, a delightful and lasting perfume. While it stimulates the roots, cleanses the scalp, and adds elegance to luxuriance, its ingredients are harmless and its effects are enduring; and thus it proves itself to be at once the best and cheapest article for toilet use.

The most healthy and popular drink of the season is the ice cold soda water sparkling with purest gas and flavored with true, delicious fruit syrups, to be had only at Queen's soda fountain.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To Dyspeptics.

The most common signs of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, are an oppression at the stomach, nausea, flatulency, water-brash, heart-burn, vomiting, loss of appetite, and constipation. Dyspeptic patients suffer untold miseries, bodily and mental. They should stimulate the digestion, and secure regular daily action of the bowels, by the use of moderate doses of Ayer's Pills.

After the bowels are regulated, one of these Pills, taken each day after dinner, is usually all that is required to complete the cure. AYER'S PILLS are a pure and perfectly vegetable—entirely safe, and reliable medicine for the cure of all disorders of the stomach and bowels. They are the best of all purgatives for family use.
